(S)

In G.O.No.2609-Law (General) Department, dated 18.8.1936 a panchayat court was ordered to be constituted for the group of villages comprised of Hombadi-Mandadi, Yedyadi-Mathyadi, Harwalli-Mandalli, Hallagi-Harwadi and Molahalli of Coondapur Taluk. Recently great difficulties were experienced by the Tahsildar, Coondapur, on two occasions while trying to conduct the election of two new members for this court. There are two rival parties in the villages-one led by one Muthaya Hegde and the other by Kamaya Shetty,both members of the Court. Each is vying with the other for securing the maximum number of seats for his party in the Court. Owing to the factious spirit, the parties create great confusion by bringing in outsiders to vote at elections and the mob becomes uncontrollable and the elections fail. As the Tahsildar found himself unable to proceed with the elections the duo Collector,C Bhandari lately proceeded there for the purpose to conduct the election himself with police bundobust, but this also did not seem in any way to help matters. As the factions ran high even if the election should be held in this way, it will be only protecting from certain time but this will have prejudicial effect on the free exercise of franchise by voters in the Court. Further more, if [illegible] Court be abolished and three re

Courts established in place of the existing one with effect from 1.6.1938. The proposals have been scrutinized by me in consultation with the Sub Collector, Coonoor.

2. The necessary notifications are enclosed. They may be approved for their publication in order.
